

I would like to express my support for a 60 meter Amateur Radio band as proposed by the ARRL. I believe that a 60 meter allocation would help alleviate some of the serious congestion on 40 and 80 meters. Additional spectrum under 10 MHz is seriously needed by the Amateur Radio community.